Objective

I was born and raised in Azerbaijan. I graduated from Qafqaz University with a major in International Relations. I have completed a master of Political Science at the University of Lund in Sweden. Through my previous work experiences at the University of Energy research center in Azerbaijan and I have already gained more than average experience in this area, having worked in the transparency non-governmental organization in Azerbaijan. At the same time, I did an internship at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Azerbaijan. I have gathered good communication skills and I can present my ideas fluently and confidently. Friends and acquaintances can testify that I am getting on well with people and I can adapt quickly to new surroundings and situations. I have learned to work toward and achieve my aims with great commitment and perseverance.

Currently, I am working as a Director of International Relations at Azerbaijan University, as well as I am a lecturer of the departments of International Relations and Political Sciences at Khazar University. I am keenly interested in sharing whole my experiences and knowledge.
